RECEIVED
CLERK'S OFFICE
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
CLEVELAND
AUG 11 2009
FBI 2:47

Honorable Christopher A. Boyko,

I am requesting that you reconsider your dismissal of the complaint for the following reasons:

In your MEMORANDUM OF OPINION AND ORDER you address the above filed action as:

- a. filed on March 9, 2006.

I filed my complaint on May 13, 2009, a difference of three years, two months and four days.

- b. filed against "the Internal Revenue Service (I.R.S.), Department of the Treasury, Kansas City, Missouri.

My complaint was addressed to unspecified entities who address

 IRS Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service
KANSAS CITY, MO 64999-. They are two or more themselves as entities that claim to be located in Kansas City, Missouri.

In my February 28, 2009 response to their February 16, 2009 unsubstantiated charge against me, the two or more of them were asked to reveal their true identity. The questions stated read:

1. Who are the two or more of you?
2. Who are the entities with whom I engaged in a tax liability understatement?
Please list their names, if any.
3. On what substantiated grounds did the two or more of you establish your charge?

4. If I am indebted to  IRS Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service
KANSAS CITY, MO 64999-, please make known the grounds on which such an indebtedness is based.
5. Are you a collection agency, a creditor agency, or someone posing as a legal entity?

c. This information was mailed to KANSAS CITY, MO 64999- on February 28, 2009. I requested a response within thirty (30) days. None was forthcoming.

d. I raised no question regarding an unpaid account. In a notice from the emblematic entity dated 03-23-2009, KANSAS CITY, MO 64999- informed me that I not only had an “unpaid account,” but that I also had an “unpaid balance” on the “unpaid account.” In my complaint cited as CASE NO. CV 1113, I made mention of the ludicrous and impossible construction. I was not seeking an answer to the impossible. In other words, I cannot conceive of an “unpaid account” on which an “unpaid balance” is due. I can readily conceive of an “account” on which there remains an “unpaid balance,”

KANSAS CITY, MO 64999- but the KANSAS CITY, MO 64999- construction makes absolutely no sense, as does their unfounded charge amounting to thirty-four thousand dollars ($34,000).

e. In the second paragraph of point 3 further clarification of what is stated would have been addressed if the emblematic entity chose to join in the action. The emblematic entity informed the plaintiff that the plaintiff:

KANSAS CITY, MO 64999- owes KANSAS CITY, MO 64999- penalties amounting to tens of thousands of dollars. They, thereafter, notified plaintiff that “if you want us to remove or reduce any of the penalties charged, you have until March 18, 2009 to pay 15% on the penalty and file a claim for a refund on a Form 6118.”

They clearly state the procedure they established and the form on which a claim is to be presented to them. The claim has nothing to do with what I filed in the federal district court. According to the emblematic entity, the claim filed with the federal district court is allowed in this manner:

“If we deny your claim, ... ”

No mention is made of the court, district court, or federal district court denying a claim filed with any one of them. The clear statement makes known that the claim is filed with the emblematic entity; who further states:

"...you may file a suit in the United States District Court within 30 days after the date we denied your claim.... "

Your honor, it appears quite evident that I either erroneously assumed that a joining of action in the court would allow these issues to be further elaborated upon, or the failure of response by the defendant, the emblematic entity, having enormous powers, including the power of a tribunal, and addressing itself as

Internal Revenue Service
KANSAS CITY, MO 64999- would result in a judgment for the plaintiff.

f. In complaint 6. I specifically stated what I am pursuing in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio. (Please see (b) above under my list included in my February 28th response to  IRS Department of the Treasury

Internal Revenue Service
KANSAS CITY, MO 64999-). I did not request any information from the Clerk of Court; any trial attorney; your honor, the judge; nor from any other source other than  IRS Department of the Treasury

Internal Revenue Service
KANSAS CITY, MO 64999-.

I expected to receive a response from the emblematic entity within the time granted to them from Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Apparently, your honor felt the need to address his own perception and dismiss my case without full knowledge of every issue that was to be addressed when the action was joined, thus circumventing the repercussions that would consequently follow.

g. I have made virtually every effort to find out who and what is or are the emblematic entity  IRS Department of the Treasury

Internal Revenue Service
KANSAS CITY, MO 64999-. Granted, many well-meaning individuals have told me that they are a government agency, and to deal with them is to deal with the United States of America. However, I have received information from the:

1. Department of the Treasury,
2. supreme courts of the United States,
3. United States Postal Service,
4. Social Security Administration, and
5.  IRS Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service
6. Legal tomes, including law reviews that what we erroneously believe to be a government agency is nothing of the sort.

I believe your honor is an honorable individual, and is well meaning in referring to the emblematic entity as a government agency. Nevertheless, the complaint was addressed to that entity, and the essence of the claim was for that entity to reveal who or what it is or they are. I did not ask your honor for his opinion as who or what he

 IRS Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service
KANSAS CITY, MO 64999-considers them to be. I wanted a simple answer from

Your honor apparently misread or misunderstood the essence of the complaint,
 IRS Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service
KANSAS CITY, MO 64999-, your honor, that matter has not been addressed by nor by the court.

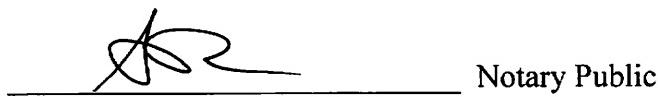

Your honor, based on the information provided herein, I ask you to reconsider your decision to dismiss my complaint. I ask this in good faith founded upon the integrity of the court and the illustrious individuals who serve honorably and seek to adhere to both oaths they take upon entering the office of Justices in the Judicial Branch of the government of the United States.

Sincerely,

Michael Allamby
